1. PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Encore basic remote control (Model ENC-REM) is an infrared remote control for use with the Encore Multi-Room Audio Distribution System.

The remote control sends infrared signals to the infrared receiver in system keypads (Model ENC-DRS).

In addition to controlling the system's power, the basic remote can select the audio source, adjust the volume, and mute the sound in each room.

The remote is powered by a single Type 2025 coin cell lithium battery.
